

Testimonials

Teachers

"Many of the modern educational methods I've been advocating for and helping organizations design and implement in my work in K-12 are all represented in the IsraelLINK program to a degree I've not seen even during my work with Harvard and MIT. It's a remarkable accomplishment!"

Jon Haber—Educational Consultant, Harvard Kennedy School

"The IsraelLINK curriculum allows middle school students to gain foundational information related to Israel using interactive and engaging methodologies. Important self-reflection tools are built in to measure the students' learning, and as a result our students have gained an invaluable basis for their relationship with Israel."

Ilana Zadok—Director of Campus Life, Harkham Hillel Hebrew Academy

"The program provides interesting and engaging content that the students can relate to, which sparks their interest to learn more. There is no curriculum that is more alive and current for students to experience everything that is Israel then, now and in the future!"

Sigalit Nechemia—Judaic Educator, VBS Day School

Students

"As the great-grandchild of Holocaust survivors, it was especially meaningful to learn through IsraelLINK how instrumental Israel was, and is, in absorbing refugees from all over the world. It strengthened my connection to Israel."

Sarah K.—8th grade

"I was always taught that I should love Israel. After my school started using IsraelLINK, I now know why I love Israel."

Audrey M.—8th grade

"When my class visited Israel everything felt so much more exciting and informative because we had prepared with the IsraelLINK curriculum. IsraelLINK helped us feel so much more connected in our minds and in our hearts and because of that, we felt more knowledgeable and passionate about Israel. I feel so lucky that we had this program."
